We value all in the name of Jesus the Christ
by exercising our baptismal mission as Prophet, Priest and King so that all may flourish.

Prayer for those whose names lie on the Altar: O God, who willed that your Only Begotten Son, having conquered death, should pass over into the realm of heaven, grant, we pray, to our departed siblings whose names lie on the Altar, that, with the mortality of this life overcome, they may gaze eternally on you, their Creator and Redeemer. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for November, the Month of the Holy Souls:

We pray that the Holy Father, as he fulfils his mission, may continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Cycle of Prayer: During the autumn of Ordinary Time, we pray for: the harvest, the fruits of human work and the reverent use of Creation; students and teachers; the spread of the Gospel; justice and peace in the world; prisoners and their families; all victims of war; and young people. We also pray for the sick and housebound, the mission of St Mary's and St Joseph's schools, and those whose anniversaries occur at this time.

Welcoming Spaces: Holy Trinity Parish Hall is open to anyone who would like some welcoming company this week:

We remember the faithful departed during Mass every day, but do so especially in November, the month of the faithful departed, God's Holy Souls.

Our Christmas Lunch will be in the Humber Royal on Sunday 17th December. Booking forms are available in each church and tickets cost just £17.50 per over-14s and £10.00 for under-14s for a good meal and social with friends and family in the run-up to Christmas, and you can pay by cash, cheque made payable to Holy Trinity GCI RCP, or by using contactless giving. There will be a prize for the best Christmas jumper.

The Faithful Departed: Please pray for: Catherine Keaney, whose Funeral Service will be in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church on Friday 17th November at 10.30 am prior to Committal in Haltemprice Crematorium; and all who mourn.

Remembrance Sunday – 12th November 2023: Next Sunday, Mass in St Mary on the Sea Church will begin at 10.55 am so that we can join His Majesty King Charles III and people across the United Kingdom in observing two minutes' silence at 11.00 am. 'At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.' During this time of conflict in the Holy Land, Ukraine, and other parts of our one world, our prayer for the cessation of warfare, extremism and terrorism must become ever more fervent, while our gratitude to those who gave their lives for our freedom must never be in doubt. Fr Andrew

Special Collection for the Holy Land – 5th November: There will be a special collection at each Mass this weekend to support Caritas Jerusalem's relief efforts in the Holy Land. The terrible situation in Israel and occupied Palestinian territory is tearing lives apart. Your donation will help to provide urgent, practical help to the families who need it in Gaza, Christian and non-Christian alike, which is served by the Catholic Parish of the Holy Family, in Gaza City, in the Patriarchate of Jerusalem, the Diocese, which includes Cyprus, the Holy Land and Jordan, as soon as it is safe for humanitarian aid workers to enter Gaza.

Collectors will be holding baskets as we leave Mass today; alternatively, put your offering in an envelope clearly marked 'Gaza' and put it in the offertory collection box or hand it to a steward – this can be done at any time and your offering will be forwarded. Please give by cash, cheques payable to 'Holy Trinity GCI RCP', or use contactless giving by pressing 'Gaza'.

Our offering will be processed by CAFOD, so that UK taxpayers can give their offering using Gift Aid. Please complete a Gift Aid Declaration if you can, as this boosts your offering at no extra cost to you, making an offering of £10.00 worth £12.50. To do so, just collect a CAFOD envelope from the stewards complete the declaration, place your offering, and put it in the collection boxes or the baskets. You can also make your offering at cafod.org.uk at any time, where you can also give your offering by Gift Aid.

Thank you for your generous support those in distress. Let us continue to pray for the release of hostages the cessation of violence, and a just peace for all who live in the Holy Land. As our Holy Father Pope Francis said at the Angelus Domini in St Peter's Square last Sunday, 'In Gaza, may space be opened to guarantee humanitarian aid, and may the hostages be released right away. Let no one abandon the possibility that the weapons might be silenced – let there be a ceasefire.'

May our Blessed Lady, Daughter of Israel and Queen of Palestine, pray for all in her homeland, and may our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose Body broken and Blood poured out is our resurrection and life, bless the people of Gaza and the wider Holy Land by his Real Presence in their midst and raise them up to a new hope so that all may flourish, 'for God wanted all perfection to be found through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the Cross' (Colossians 1:19-20). And let us be peacemakers as authentic children of God. Fr Andrew

The Synod of Bishops has prepared a synthesis report, A Synodal Church in Mission, which is in three parts, 'The Face of the Synodal Church', 'All Disciples, All Missionaries' and 'Weaving Bonds, Building Communities'. The Synod is a listening process, a conversation in the Holy Spirit, and the report looks at convergences, points for further consideration and proposals. Copies have been emailed to everyone on the mailing list, are available for all those who wish to receive one, by email or paper copy, from the parish office and which can be downloaded at synod.va. The first session of the sixteenth ordinary general assembly concluded last Sunday in St Peter's Basilica, and the second session will meet in Rome next year.

At the Closing Mass, the Pope said: 'Today we do not see the full fruit of this process, but with farsightedness we look to the horizon opening up before us. The Lord will guide us and help us to be a more synodal and missionary Church, a Church that adores God and serves the women and men of our time, going forth to bring to everyone the consoling joy of the Gospel.'
