THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

THE WORD

Year B • 2 June 2024 • Psalter Week 1

LOST, ALL LOST IN WONDER

MARK 14:12-16.22-26

Today's feast doesn't commemorate any particular event in Jesus' life, but is a celebration of his gift of the Eucharist. The traditional day for this feast is the Thursday after Trinity Sunday.

The reason Thursday is chosen is because Jesus celebrated the Last Supper on the Thursday before he died when he gifted his disciples with the Eucharist during the Passover meal. Many local churches have moved the celebration to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. The churches in the UK and Ireland follow this practice.

In today's Gospel, the disciples ask Jesus about his plans to celebrate the Passover meal. Jesus sends two of them into the city and tells them what they are to do. Normally, the Passover meal would be celebrated by a Jewish family. However, Jesus is not going to celebrate this meal with his blood relatives but with his "new family" of disciples. When the disciples go into the city, everything happens as Jesus foretold and they make the preparations.

Later that evening, during the meal, Jesus speaks words about his death over the bread and wine. Following the Jewish custom at Passover, Jesus blesses God for the gift of food and then breaks the bread and gives a piece to all present with the words, "Take it, this is my body." The broken bread he shares with the disciples is his body broken in death for others. Those who eat this bread are now connected to him in the most profound way.

He does the same with the cup and adds, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many." The Jews understood that the covenant made between God and Israel at Mount Sinai had been sealed in animals' blood. Blood symbolised life and since the Sinai covenant was sealed in blood, it meant that Israel then shared in God's very own life. Jesus now offers us an eternal, life-giving New Covenant, sealed in his very own blood. ■

SAY

"Lord, I thank you for the gift of the Eucharist. Help me to treasure it always. Amen."

PRAY

Pray that you will never lose your sense of awe and wonder at what takes place in the Eucharist.

LEARN

The Body of Christ is our soul-nourishing food, the bread that gives us life.

Vatican II teaches that the Eucharist is the source and the summit of the life of the Church.

The Eucharist leads us from church to world to serve others.

DO

Think about how you respond to the gift of the Eucharist. Does it amaze you, enrapture you, fill you with awe?

REFLECT

It's easy to lose our sense of wonder, to live in a world of the mundane. Every day I follow the same route on my early morning walk. I know the terrain like the back of my hand, and so don't pay much attention to what's going on around me as I listen to a book on Audible. My route takes me past Limerick's famous King John's castle. One morning last year saw a glorious red sky as the sun rose majestically behind the castle. I didn't pay it much attention. It was just another sunrise, until a man standing behind a tripod commanded me to stop. He had been taking photographs of the castle framed against the crimson sky. "Stop, stop, you gotta stop and look at this," he said, pointing towards the castle. "It's gorgeous; you need to take it in." And I did. I took out my AirPods and stood with him for several minutes gazing at the awesome sight before our eyes. And I expressed my gratitude to him for forcing me to stop and look and marvel. My morning walk had become so routine, so quotidian, that I didn't appreciate what was going on around me. I try not to make that mistake now.

Repetition dulls excitement. Doing more or less the same thing every day, we can fall into a rut and lose our capacity for awe, for wonder.

It's the same when it comes to the Eucharist. If we go to Mass regularly, we know what to expect. The readings will differ each time, and hopefully the homily will be original and engaging, but otherwise there is a sameness to the celebration: the same consecration, the same holy communion, the same words, the same gestures. It becomes so routine, so predictable, that we can lose our sense of awe, of wonder, at what is taking place. We fail to marvel at the miracle unfolding among us, the gift of the body and blood of Christ given to us out of love.

In one sense, today's feast may seem superfluous. After all, every Eucharist is a feast of the body and blood of Christ. What we celebrate today, we celebrate every time we come to Mass. But precisely because we are so used to it, occasionally we need a little jolt, a nudge, as I was given on my morning walk, to remind us to look more closely at what is happening, to stop and appreciate more fully what it is we are celebrating, to be amazed at the event unfolding, awestruck at the gift we are receiving. As you receive the Lord in holy communion today, let this feast be a reminder to you to be, in the words of St Thomas Aquinas, "lost, all lost in wonder at the God thou art." ■

Dear fellow Parishioners,

I have been asked by Father Andrew to write to you all, on his behalf.

First of all, he wishes us all a very happy patronal feast day of our Parish of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity, Grimsby, Cleethorpes and Immingham, the biggest and best parish in this, our Diocese of Nottingham. And he also extends his immense gratitude to Bishop Patrick for Celebrating Mass this weekend and for his continued support of his ministry here in our parish.

Second, This Thursday, 23rd May 2024 Father Andrew was taken into hospital where he has undergone examinations and tests and has now been discharged. He will continue to recover away from the presbytery, so that the parish office and parish rooms may continue to function without disrupting his recovery over the coming weeks.

Third, In the meantime, the usual weekday liturgical schedule will be maintained with Celebrations of Word and Holy Communion in the place of Mass. If you have an appointment with Father Andrew, I will be contacting you to cancel this, and will rearrange this as soon as Father Andrew is able to return to parish ministry.

Fourth, To receive the sacrament of the anointing of the sick or reconciliation please do contact the parish office in the usual way, and I will arrange for a Priest from one of our neighbouring Parishes to visit you. Or if in danger of death please do still ring Father Andrew himself, and he will ensure I arrange for a Priest from one of our neighbouring Parishes to visit you.

Fifth, this week has made all but too clear the impact that all of our Parish Priests' unconditional, unrelenting, selfless and dedicated service, can have on their health. Father Andrew has been told that from September of this year, there will be more retired Priests in this, our Diocese of Nottingham than those still in Public Ministry, so their responsibilities will only increase further. Father Andrew has spoken repeatedly, of our co-responsibility for the Church, rooted in our baptismal mission of Prophet, Priest and King. I ask you to consider even the small ways you can help support the functioning of our Parish going forward and please do speak to me if you would like to help, but are unsure about how to.

Ours is a large Parish, and a busy Parish. Perhaps the busiest, biggest and best, is a more accurate tagline moving forward. We are a parish I am extremely proud to serve, but if we are to continue to be the Parish we have been made and called to be, then we all must play our part in the coming months and years to ensure that all, including our Priests, are valued in the name of Jesus the Christ, and continue to flourish.

Lastly, and most importantly, Father Andrew cannot thank you all enough for your prayers and well wishes. He looks forward to returning to serving our Parish which he loves so much, as soon as he possibly can. He assures us all of his continued prayers.

With my prayers for us all in this Parish of Holy Trinity GCI,

Duncan Weston BA MA
Parish Administrator

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for June, the Month of the Sacred Heart – for migrants fleeing their homes: May migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them.

Cycle of Prayer: During the summer of Ordinary Time, we pray for: a deeper understanding between Christians and Jews; those who suffer persecution, oppression & the denial of human rights; Europe; human life; and seafarers. We also pray for our young parishioners and those who mentor them, the sick and housebound, the recently deceased, and those whose anniversaries occur at this time.

Welcoming Spaces: Holy Trinity Parish Hall is open to anyone who would like some welcoming company this week:

Weds 12:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Everyone is welcome to come in for free, with tea, coffee and biscuits available for all who would like them!

Eightieth Anniversary of Operation Overlord – 6th June 2024: We will host a Civic Service of Remembrance on the eightieth anniversary of Operation Overlord (D-Day) in St Mary on the Sea Church this Thursday, 6th June, at 6.00 pm in the presence of the Worshipful the Mayor of the Borough of North East Lincolnshire, Cllr Stephen Beasant, representatives of His Majesty's Armed Forces and civic dignitaries. Fr Andrew is pleased that pupils from St Mary's Catholic Academy will read from the school's logbook from that time, lead the prayer of the faithful and assist with stewarding. All are welcome to join Mr Mayor as we give thanks for all who have given of themselves so that democracy could triumph over totalitarianism, and so that we could live in freedom, and as we gather for this Civic Service during the ongoing general election campaign, may we always remember that what unites us is always greater than that which divides us, and the price that has been paid by our forebears for our inalienable right to place our 'X' on our ballot paper and so choose those who represent us and make our laws in Parliament and locally in our boroughs, districts, counties and civil parishes. May we never forget those who have gone before us, to whom we owe a debt that can never be paid.

The Faithful Departed: Please pray for: Maureen Tuckey, whose Funeral Mass will be celebrated in Corpus Christi Church on Tuesday 18th June at 11.00 am prior to Committal in Cleethorpes Cemetery; and those who mourn.

First Holy Communion: Please pray for our younger parishioners who will receive their First Holy Communion during 11.00 am Mass next Sunday, 9th June, 5.00 pm Mass on 15th June and 11.00 am Mass on 16th June; Holy Communion will be distributed under both kinds during these Masses.

Meeting for Ministers – 10th July 2024: All who volunteer in our parish in any way whatsoever, e.g., ministers of Holy Communion and tea & coffee makers, are invited to a meeting with me in Corpus Christi Church, which will begin with the celebration of Mass at 6.00 pm; at this meeting, safeguarding training will be provided, revised guidance for various ministries will be issued, and Fr Andrew will have the opportunity to thank you for your service in our parish.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – 2nd June 2024: To celebrate and give thanks for the institution of the Most Holy Eucharist, Holy Communion will be distributed under both kinds this weekend, and there will be Holy Hour in Corpus Christi Church this Sunday 2nd June, at 3.00 pm, to which all are welcome, and which will be followed by light refreshments in Holy Trinity Parish Hall. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will renew their commitment during our celebrations of Mass today; all EMHCs should attend one of the annual days of renewal in our Diocese, and there will be a renewal day in our parish on Saturday 6th July – more information about that will be distributed in due course.

Nottingham Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes: Bishop Patrick will lead this year's pilgrimage between Monday 15th and Friday 19th July. Flying from East Midlands Airport to Lourdes, prices for the full-board pilgrimage start at £819, including a full liturgical programme, and medical care and assistance for those who need it. It would be lovely for a group to go from our parish – if you like to join this year's pilgrimage, Duncan has some application forms, please speak to him if you would like one, or go to dioceseofnottingham.uk/events/Lourdes for more information.

Parish Pilgrimage to Walsingham – 22nd August 2024: Fr Andrew will lead a parish pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Walsingham on Thursday 22nd August. Places on the bus, which will leave Holy Trinity Parish Hall at 7.30 am, cost £20 for adults and £10 for children. We will arrive in Walsingham in time to celebrate Mass at noon in the Basilica, attend afternoon devotions and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and renew the consecration of our parish to Our Lady of Walsingham in the Slipper Chapel; please contact Moira Waters (01472 475026).

SVP: There will be a retiring collection to support our parish SVP conference this weekend. Please help them to support some of the most vulnerable members of the local community which it is our privilege to serve.

We thank Bishop Patrick, for giving so generously of his time to come to our parish – which, as he reminded everyone, is the biggest, best and most humble in the Diocese of Nottingham – to preside at our celebrations of Mass and visit Fr Andrew last weekend. We thank Fr Limnyuy Gamsi for coming to our parish, at very short notice, to celebrate two Funeral Masses and one Wedding Mass, and also to anoint Fr Andrew while he was in hospital last week. We welcome Canon Christopher Thomas, General Secretary of the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, to preside at our celebrations of Mass this weekend, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Fr Andrew would like to thank the paramedics from East Midlands Ambulance Service, the staff of Diana Princess of Wales Hospital, and those who have looked after him since he has been discharged, for their kindness towards him and their dedication in serving others, and to everyone who has sent him messages and has prayed for him. He hopes to return to the parish this Thursday. It is currently recommended that he does not drive, as such, all weekday liturgies will be celebrated in St Mary on the Sea Church, until further notice. Funerals will continue to be celebrated in all three of our churches. Copies of my letter, which was emailed out last Sunday, are available from each church, do ask a steward for one if you would like a copy. I am grateful to you all for your cooperation and support. Duncan

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament
have left us a memorial of your Passion,
grant us, we pray,
so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body
and Blood
that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Exodus 24:3-8

A reading from the book of Exodus.

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, "We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed." Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel.
Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people,
and they said, "We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey." Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. This, he said, "is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 115 (116):12-13, 15-18

Response:

The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

1. How can I repay the Lord
for his goodness to me?
The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the Lord's name. (R.)
2. O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.
Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds. (R.)

3. A thanksgiving sacrifice I make;
I will call on the Lord's name.
My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people. (R.)

SECOND READING

Hebrews 9:11-15

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all,
taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator,
only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel
the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE

Behold the bread of angels, sent for pilgrims in their banishment,
the bread for God's true children meant,
that may not unto dogs be given:
Oft in the olden types foreshowed;
in Isaac on the altar bowed,
and in the ancient paschal food,
and in the manna sent from heaven.
Come then, good shepherd, bread divine,
still show to us thy mercy sign;
Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;
so may we see thy glories shine
in fields of immortality;
O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,
our present food, our future rest,
come, make us each thy chosen guest,
co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest
with saints whose dwelling is with thee.
Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord.
Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, "Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?" So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, 'The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?' He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread,
and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. "Take it," he said "this is my body." Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, "This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God."

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with
the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(all bow during the next three lines)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness
of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Grant your Church, O Lord, we pray,
the gifts of unity and peace,
whose signs are to be seen in mystery
in the offerings we here present.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Grant, O Lord, we pray,
that we may delight for all eternity
in that share in your divine life,
which is foreshadowed in the present age
by our reception of your precious Body and Blood.
Who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

Calling Foundation Governors...

Are you looking for a way to live out your faith and serve your local community at the same time?

If so, becoming a foundation governor could be just the thing for you.

Bishop Patrick McKinney is seeking practising Catholics to appoint as new foundation governors to our diocesan schools. Foundation governors play a vital role in maintaining and developing the Catholic character of our schools.

This event is designed to provide information about the role of a foundation governor, the application process and the support offered.
